FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I'm not sure of my password and the website will not let me reset the password.
You most likely created a JWU account using a different email address, and the one you are using now is not being recognized. If you used a different email to create your account, try using that email address.

How do I pay my application fee?
JWU does not require an application fee.

How can I submit my essay?
You can submit an essay directly to your campus Admissions Office. However, note that JWU does not require essays of undergraduate applicants.

If I was previously enrolled at JWU, do I need to reapply?
Previously enrolled students should use the readmit form.

Are SATs required?
SAT/ACT scores are not required to apply for most programs, although we encourage all applicants who've completed either examination to submit scores. Scores are required for admittance to the Honors program.

Will colleges accept both the current and the redesigned SAT?
JWU will accept current and redesigned SAT scores (beginning in spring 2016) for admission, scholarship, program qualification. Applicants may submit scores from either test.

Do you require the SAT with Essay?
JWU does not require the essay at this time.

How will the redesigned scores be used in admission, scholarships, or other programs?

Students who are home-schooled
SAT scores of 27 in Reading test and 530 in Math section (New SAT) or ACT equivalent are required for admittance.

Students interested in Honors program
SAT scores with a minimum of 28 in Reading test and 540 Math section (New SAT) or ACT scores of 22 or better are required for admittance into this program.